

BENZENE

DESCRIPTION

Benzene is a colorless and highly flammable liquid with a sweet smell and a relatively high melting point. It is being used as an additive for gasoline and as industrial solvent and precursor in the production of drugs, plastics, synthetic rubber, and dyes.

TYPE

- Aromatic solvent

AVAILABLE PACKAGES

- Bulk

TYPICAL CHARACTERISTICS

|                                      |                  |
|--------------------------------------|------------------|
| Appearance                           | Bright and Clear |
| Color, Platinum/Cobalt Scale         | 7                |
| Density at 15.6°C, kg/m <sup>3</sup> | 882.0            |
| Purity, % wt                         | 99.96            |